ACTION SKEET

A New Age Skeet Flurry

Today's technological era has made many things possible that previously were not. Long story short, time compressed shooting sports are attracting more shooters than the old static shooting sports of yesterday. Our new generations of shooters have been raised on video games that excited the senses by compressing a given time you have to perform a rather simple task. In hopes of invigorating our sport with new shooters and as well as having fun we are mixing things up to see where this new road may lead hoping that the future may suggest many more exciting paths. Let your imagination wonder and think of the many possibilities. Once you read below how it works your mind will fly, you'll see! Here is how we will begin this new adventure.

On your call, you will receive:

- Stations 1, 2, 6, and 7
 - An instant High House
 - A 3 second delayed Low House
 - An 8 second delayed Pair (so you can reload your shotgun)
